Ryan Inglis aims for chart success

On August 18th 2011 Ryan Inglis from Weston-super-Mare is set to release his first single 'Secret' from his forthcoming fan-funded album. In October last year he was awarded $15,000 (£9,000) to record and promote his original material from www.slicethepie.com and has been busy in the world famous Abbey Road studios putting his album together with his band. The first single is at the mastering stage and a music video is being shot this month.

A resident of W-s-M for the past 8 years the yet unsigned and self managed singer/songwriter/guitarist has been a full time musician for the past 4 years. He aims to break 2,500 digital single sales to achieve a top 40 position in the charts to prove it can be done without the need of profit driven record companies or contractually binding talent shows and instead by supportive fans of his music

"Truly edgy, great vocals and lyrics to match"

Ryan Inglis said: "I am absolutely delighted to have been awarded the money and to have the fantastic opportunity of recording an album at the Abbey Road studios, which were made so famous by The Beatles. I am determined to get my single into the top 40 without using record companies who tie you into all sorts of contracts. I know it can be done"
