Secret's message is to not use information about other peoples business in a reckless manner or gossip without knowing all the facts. It's not a lecture... but just don't do it.

Thankyou To:

- My investors and slicethepie.com for making this all possible. With your support, I hope I do us all proud
- My amazing band who have worked tirelessly and with great commitment to achieve these recordings
- Tom Sheppard for introducing me to Kris and generally being a great friend
- Tony Hobden for sticking with me all these years and helping me create this and my acoustic album (7 Blank Tiles)
- Rhys Hayward for directing the music video so professionally and being fantastic to work with. The extra miles you have gone to have been greatly appreciated
- Joe Morgan for helping me to put the song together. You helped shape the first demo recordings and gave me confidence in the song
- My family & friends for supporting my decision to be a musician
- Weston College for teaching me the skills to carve my own music career
- Angela Cassidy and all at NOVA radio for your continued support
- And finally YOU! For buying this and supporting my music; it means so much to me you wouldn't believe. I couldn't do any of this without you listening in
